

The personal data required by this form is necessary to enable the EU offices of Squire Patton Boggs ('SPB') to process your Data Subject Action Request. The information you supply will only be used for the purposes of identifying the personal data you are requesting and for responding to your request, in accordance with the EU General Data Protection Regulation ('GDPR'). It may be shared with our legal and administrative teams in the United States for processing and preparing a response, subject to the EU Standard Contractual clauses for our intra-group transfers, and it will be stored securely until the relevant procedures are completed.

1. Details of the person requesting the information:

Full Name:	Former Names (if applicable):
Current Address:	Former Address (including dates of change) (if applicable):
Date of Birth:	E-mail address (optional):
Contact Phone Number:

2. Are you the Data Subject? (check box that applies)

I am the Data Subject and enclose evidence of my identity and address.

I am not the Data Subject, but am acting on the Data Subject's behalf as his/her personal representative. I have written authority, which I enclose, along with evidence of my identity and address.

To ensure that we are releasing data to the right person, please provide us with sufficient identification, in accordance with applicable law, to confirm that you are entitled to the information requested under the GDPR.

The nature of the identification required will depend on the nature of your request and your relationship with SPB. For example, if you are an SPB employee or fee earner, please provide your employee number or other work-related information that can be used to identify you. If you are a third party with no affiliation with SPB, please provide at least two forms of identification sufficient to authenticate your identity and physical address.

Any identification documents sent to us should be transmitted through secure means of communication and should be photocopies or scanned images (do not send the originals).

To help us respond to your request, please identify your relationship with Squire Patton Boggs: _____

If you do not provide adequate proof of identity, we reserve the right to decline to provide the requested personal data.

Please note that if you are making a Data Subject Action Request and the information you request reveals details directly or indirectly about another person, we will need to seek the consent of that person before we can disclose that information to you. In certain circumstances, where disclosure of part or all of the information you have requested would adversely affect the rights and freedoms of others, we may not be able to disclose the information to you, in which case you will be informed promptly and given full reasons for that decision. Please further note that information covered by a legal professional privilege or obligation cannot be disclosed.

Other types of Data Subject Action Requests are subject to certain conditions and exceptions. We will advise you in writing if we believe that your Data Subject Action Request fails to meet the requirements of the GDPR in whole or in part.

In most circumstances, SPB will provide you with a copy of the information requested free of charge. However, SPB may be permitted to charge a reasonable fee if a Data Subject Action Request is repetitive or manifestly unfounded or excessive. SPB also may charge a reasonable fee to comply with Data Subject Action Requests for further copies of the same information. The fee will be based on the administrative cost of providing the information.

What happens next?

If your request is valid, we will acknowledge your request in writing and provide you with a reference number relating to your Data Subject Action Request and start processing your records.

If your request is valid but we are unable to identify you, we will advise you of this and request additional information.

Once SPB has all the required information, your request should be completed within one month. However, if your request is complex, we will take an extension to a maximum of three months and inform you within one month of your request. We also will inform you of the reasons for the delay.

If you have sent us an invalid request (e.g., without proof or context), we will return your request along with any enclosures and advise you why your application has been rejected.

Note that all information disclosed pursuant to a Data Subject Action Request is a file copy; originals are not provided.

Supplementing this application.

If after you have received the information you have requested you believe that:

- the information is inaccurate or incomplete; or
- we should no longer be holding that information; or
- we are using your information for a purpose of which you were unaware or to which you object; or
- we may have passed inaccurate information about you to someone else;

you should promptly notify the DSAR Manager by email or post to:
